

Roller chain stopper

The roller chain stopper is supplied in the absence of the builder's own standard version, or when a vessel's owner requests that the winch maker supplies one. Two versions are available: hydraulically supported and fully manual.

TTS

The roller chain stopper is suitable for chain sizes of between 55mm and 160mm, with an optional quick-release device. It is designed to meet the requirements of all classification societies.

